

Query Operators

Operators used to Update

Query and projection operators

Update operators

Aggregation pipeline operators

Query modifiers

Query Operations

db.employee.find ({ age : { $gt : 18 } }) .sort ({ age : 1})

```
{ age : 18, . . . . }
                                  { age : 28, . . . . }
                                                                     { age : 21, . . . . }
{ age : 28,....}
                      Age > 18
                                  { age : 21, . . . . }
                                                                     { age : 28, . . . . }
                                                           sort
{ age : 21,...}
                                  { age : 38, . . . . }
                                                                     { age : 36,....}
{ age : 38,....}
                                  { age : 36,....}
                                                                     { age : 38, . . . . }
{ age : 36,....}
{ age : 16, . . . . }
                                                                     Computed result
```

employee

Hands-On

